

The Lord's Prayer

adapted by Janet Klevberg

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

GATHERING

WORDS OF INSPIRATION

We do well not to pray the [Lord's] prayer lightly. It takes guts to pray it at all. "Thy will be done" is what we are saying. We are asking God to be God. We are asking God to do not what we want, but what God wants. Boldness indeed. To speak those words is to invite the tiger out of the cage, to unleash a power that makes atomic power look like a warm breeze.

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: With words used by many each week, perhaps each day: words of a prayer that has traveled centuries, words of a prayer used across the world in countless languages, words which are a part of us,

Many: we gather to say, learn and grow from them today and always.

*HYMN OF PRAISE

Hymn #20 All Things Bright and Beautiful

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we thank you for the words of the Lord's Prayer that mean so much, and say so much, for so many people. Yet, merciful God, we know that we also need to say sorry for there have been times when we have used this prayer, said the words aloud or recited them in our minds and barely taken notice of them. Sometimes we recite the words and they become an empty chorus, with little feeling and little in the way of direct faith consequence. Sometimes we become too reliant on these words as they easily slip off the tongue instead of really thinking about what we want to say to you, what we should say, and how we should say it.

(Prayer of Confession Continued)

Sometimes creativity can be lacking in the way that we communicate with you, and sometimes we get so caught up in the tradition of the words used that 'tradition' itself becomes more important than the freedom to be led by Your Spirit. Forgive us our complacency, our lack of feeling in prayer, our over-use of tradition. Grant us the confidence to continue to explore how we can communicate with you, and imaginatively feel how you communicate with us, in order that our relationship with you always stays appropriate and fresh.

*SILENT PRAYER

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: Friends, our salvation is not something that can be purchased with money or fame. Our salvation comes from Jesus Christ and Jesus Christ alone. I announce to you this day; our sins are forgiven.

Many: Alleluia! Amen.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

One: The Peace of Christ be with you.

Many: And also with you...

(Please greet your neighbors with a handshake, a hug, or another sign of peace saying, "The peace of Christ be with you.")

*PRAYER RESPONSE

Hymn #552

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

RESPONDING

*HYMN OF HOPE

Hymn #822 When We are Living

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

It is through Christ's reconciling work that we are the church, united to God and to other believers. As the church, we are the salt of the earth. We are the light of the world. We are entrusted with the message of reconciliation in and through Jesus Christ. As the church, we are witnesses by both word and deed. We proclaim the new heaven and the new earth, in which righteousness dwells. As the church, we proclaim that God's life-giving Word and Spirit has conquered sin and death. God conquers irreconciliation, hatred and bitterness. As the church, God's life-giving Word and Spirit enable us to live in a new obedience, God opens new possibilities of life for society and the world. We declare ourselves ready to venture out on the road of obedience and reconciliation-- servants of the God who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Holy Triune God, we thank you for this meal that proclaims the peace and healing of the nations. We thank you for this meal where a little is enough to change our lives; where a little is more than enough to feed those whose hearts yearn for communion in community. May this bread and fruit of the vine nourish us so that we may grow in the faith and knowledge that in you, we are one. Amen.
